No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With its stars of a Union unbroken and true.
Arise and defend it, [illegible]
Whose blood [illegible]

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT 29, 1863

Gerrit Smith's Position

We regret to see in some of the papers in this State which we have no doubt strongly sympathize with the Union allusions to the course and purposes of this distinguished philanthropist, which we believe are entirely unjust. In his recent speech in which he distinctly for the present withdraws from his active participation with his old associates in his Abolition projects he distinctly declared that the imperative and supreme business of the hour was "not to build up or tear down systems not to sustain or assail peculiar institutions, but simply and earnestly to put down the rebellion." Ought not such a position now enunciated by one, who may even have been the chiefest among the radical leaders to be sufficient to justify the most cordial welcome from all who love and seek the welfare of the Union? Is it not right, that those who think as he now does instead of reproaching him for what they even deem dangerous political heresies in the past, should gratefully acknowledge his patriotic confession and surrender of former demands. So it seems to us, for we cannot perceive in what respect he seriously differs from all, who now defend the Union. It is their business to prop up and preserve vitality in the peculiar institutions of the rebel States, for if these stand in the way of the great work of preserving the integrity of the nation, they must be destroyed and swept away forever, not alone or chiefly because they are bad, but because they help the rebellion. Nor are we compelled to take upon ourselves the duty of removing the burden of old institutions which have had a constitutional toleration, because having preserved from wreck this glorious Government we may safely leave questions of social reform to be influenced and settled by the principles of right and justice always operating in a free land. If slavery goes down in the contest we may justly rejoice in its destruction, but if it survives the terrible tempest which it has raised, let us not for that reason fight the Government, nor discard in either event, the support of patriots and philanthropists whose cry is like that of Gerrit Smith—put down the rebellion at all hazards!"

THE TRAITOR TOOMBS.—The Georgia Constitutionalist of Aug 24th contains a letter from Robert Toombs, late Secretary of State. He boldly expresses the wickedness and corruption of the managers of the bogus Government, and says that while the rebellion is rotten, useless and wicked, the laws are weak and the rulers oppressive, and the starving community are impoverished and plundered. We quote the following remarkable paragraph:

"Can I say more to expose the boundless folly of our present financial system than the history of our currency with that of our enemies since the beginning of the war? It is humiliating to us. Either had foreign credit, both had powerful and established State Governments to back them. We were united in favor of war, they were divided. They have kept twice the number in the field that we have on half the money, and paid the soldiers better than we have. Their treasury notes sell at a discount of less than thirty per cent, ours at more than one thousand. The reason is solely that their Government has better understood and more firmly adhered to the true principles than ours. In all else we had the advantage."

Toombs proceeds, and says that taxation, rigid and comprehensive, and loans, are the only ways by which sound currency can be obtained. He concludes thus:

"We must act, and that quickly. The public interests and the public safety will no longer allow of delay. Our present system is utterly insupportable. It is upsetting the very foundation of private rights, daily weakening the public confidence, our cause at home and abroad, and sowing among the people a dangerous discontent, which is daily weakening and widening. Patriotism demands that all good men should unite and correct the evil."

A BLAST AGAINST HORSE RACING.—Considering that the young Prince of Wales "graciously" lends his "patronage" to this amusement in England, the Dean of Carlisle handled the subject rather boldly in a sermon lately preached at Carlisle. The Court Journal, of course, thinks the following rather immoderate and uncalled for language:

"He would lift up his voice with earnestness, with affection and solemnity, warning all his brethren against the necessary inevitable profligacy and abandonment of the races. He cared not who supported racing or advocated it; he knew it to be from the crown of its head to the sole of its foot, nothing but immoral rottenness. Based upon gambling, encouraging drunkenness, lewdness, abandonment, profaneness, swearing and cursing. There was no single vice they could mention on the face of the earth that does not grow on the race-course as in a swamp of wickedness nurturing everything evil. He did not say that every one who goes there is naturally wicked, but he said every man, woman, or maiden who lends the smallest help to the practices of the English race course, lends interest and support whether knowingly or unknowingly to a flood of ungodliness which desolates the land, and therefore he warned parents against allowing their children to go there. He believed if the city were polled, there would be a vast majority of persons who would be glad to see this nuisance swept away."

From the Expedition in the Snake Country

CAMP NO [illegible] CAMP [illegible] Sept [illegible]

E[illegible] OREGONIAN:

We left Fort Hall on our homeward trip on the 27th of August and arrived here on the 5th inst, all well. The Cavalry under Col Maury will leave here on the [illegible] for Salmon Falls and the Owyhee [illegible] Fort Walla Walla. The Infantry [illegible] Major Rinearson will [illegible] meet us at the Owyhee [illegible]

On the trip so far [illegible] Snakes [illegible] Snake [illegible] detachment [illegible] camp of perhaps 100 Snakes at the Falls. But they show [illegible] fight [illegible] they would not fight and [illegible] two of them back to camp. We [illegible] a number of Indians in the [illegible] Fort Hall. Gen Connor [illegible] given [illegible] them papers showing that [illegible] treated with them [illegible]

Our return by Salmon Falls may result in something [illegible] but the prospects are not flattering. I do not know what Col Maury's intentions are but think he will demand the Indians who have been for the [illegible] committing murders heretofore and [illegible] those Indians who are stationed [illegible] to give them up. He may also [illegible] the expedition up to the head waters of the Owyhee where report says, most of the robbing and stealing Snakes are [illegible]

The great difficulty is to find the Indians. Such a force as ours with the necessary transportation makes so much [illegible] that the Indians can always discover us in time to depart to their mountain fastnesses. One fact however speaks well and shows that our presence at least has some terror for the Indians—not a single depredation has been committed the present season anywhere from Burnt river to Fort Hall.

We have had quite a pleasant trip so far. The road from Fort Lapwai to Boise was a good mountain road. There was plenty of good water and grass and any amount of fine trout—large quantities of which we caught.

There are good [illegible] and grass [illegible] the head waters of Payette river—extensive enough to make a good sized county. It is a well watered country, with fine timber on the adjacent mountains.

The country on Boise river is poorly adapted to agricultural pursuits and in my opinion when the best lands are cultivated will not produce enough food for the supply of the mining population likely to winter in the valley.

Camas Prairie is rather a good country for agriculture and grazing—not so rich [illegible] as well watered as the upper Payette but the climate is perhaps better—the country not being of so great altitude. The good lands of this prairie are extensive enough to make a large county with resources abundant to sustain a large population.

There is also good land in the vicinity of Fort Hall for a large county and this will be settled up in a few years—for I believe the mountains from Boise to Beaver Head are full of gold and silver.

While we were at Fort Hall we had plenty of fresh vegetables—onions, potatoes and [illegible] ples from Salt Lake. We received our latest news there—getting telegrams only four days from the States.

Gen Connor has, I understand, on good authority, established a colony at Soda Springs on Bear river for the especial [illegible] of disappointed Mormons, particularly those alias "Morrisites" who disapprove of polygamy—which colony, under his fostering care, is rapidly growing into importance.

The emigration is very small—only some 350 wagons all told—and a majority of the emigrants, I fear, are Copperheads.

We shall leave here on the 11th. N C

THE KANSAS MASSACRE.—The more we learn of the burning and pillage of the town of Lawrence, Kansas and the butchery of its citizens the more horrible it appears. The rebels seem to have achieved their whole object, and have left behind them monuments of ruin and memories of fire and slaughter the like of which not even this infernal rebellion had heretofore produced, and which will be traditionary for ages in the beautiful valley of the Kaw, as the massacre of Wyoming in the valley of the Susquehanna. At Lawrence, however there was no battle, but only and simply a butchery of surprised and unarmed citizens. We have only the names of about fifty of the nearly two hundred citizens who fell victims to Quantrell. Many of these are persons who were not only prominent and honored in Kansas but well known far beyond the borders of the State. They comprise lawyers, clergymen, judges, editors, doctors, merchants, mechanics, farmers, public officials and military officers. John Spear who with his two brothers, was killed, was the editor of the first Free State journal published in the Territory of Kansas, some seven years ago, and after a long retirement, had again lately assumed the editorial chair. He was a native of Ohio, a man of fine intellect, noble impulses and irrepressible joviality, and the young State could suffer no greater loss than in losing him. Josiah Trask was a young man of excellent parts, a son of a distinguished clergyman of the same name a native of Massachusetts and had been for several years and was at the time of his death editor of the Kansas State Journal, published in Lawrence. F G Low, also killed, was a distinguished lawyer but, we believe, co-editor with Trask. The Mayor of the town, General Collamer, also killed, was well known in the East and in the West as a prominent business man, a staunch Free State champion in the days of the Kansas struggle and latterly for his connection with the army. The brothers Eldridge, killed, are noted in Kansas history as connected with the famous Free State Hotel of Lawrence, which was burned by the Border Ruffians in 1856. Colonel Stone is a gallant officer of one of the best Kansas regiments. [illegible] is a [illegible] of great wealth and extensive connections. Others of the names will be [illegible] and we mention these only to indicate the character of the men whom the rebels sprung upon as the objects of their fury. As the town has only about 3,000 inhabitants, and has sent nearly all its able bodied men to far off fields to battle for the National cause, we should think that Quantrell and his gang of murderers had butchered nearly every citizen left within its limits. It is a calamity of the most heartrending kind—an atrocity of unspeakable character.—N Y Times.

ALL OF A KIND.—As a train [illegible] of Morgan's men were passing through Newark, Ohio, one of them, as the crowd assembled to see the horsethieves and murderers, asked if there were any Vallandigham men about. "Yes sir," said a raw-boned chap, "I am a Vallandigham man." "All right," said the horsethief, "get right in here with us, we are all Vallandigham men."

MORE ROTATION.—Another Postal Agent has been appointed for the Pacific coast in place of Henry Baker removed. Mr Thomas Hill, late deputy Collector at San Francisco, is the fortunate man, whose good luck in getting the office is about like that of "winning the elephant."

Mexican Intelligence

We have dates from the city of Mexico to [illegible] August 10th. The most exciting news is the activity of the guerrillas. They now occupy the main roads leading to the city of Mexico, and have captured several trains of French army stores. Communication between the city of Mexico and Vera Cruz is constantly interrupted. A force attacked Jalapa when the French who occupied that city were compelled to evacuate the place and retreat towards Vera Cruz. Guerrillas now occupy Jalapa. Gen Caillar (guerrilla) also defeated the French at Orizaba and at latest dates occupied that city.

A severe engagement took place at a place called Nepalucan. After Gen Negrete entered Puebla a large force consisting of about 500 soldiers was sent under the command of the Mexican traitor Gen Marquez for the purpose of attacking Negrete. The troops met and Marquez was defeated. He suffered a perfect rout, leaving his dead and wounded on the field, with their arms.

It was stated that Marquez would be superseded in the command of the traitor Mexican forces and that ex-President Miramon, who had arrived at Mexico and had given in his adherence to the French, would be appointed in his stead. This same Miramon had been obliged to flee from Mexico on account of his robbing the Government and persecuting the people. Since that time he had been living in France as one of the instruments of Napoleon. At the time Miramon ran away from Mexico he robbed the Treasury of $660,000.

The newspapers in the City of Mexico were still teeming with notices of the success of the rebels in the United States. They also called for a speedy recognition of the Southern Confederacy by Mexico. They were waiting anxiously for advices from Europe as to the acceptance of the crown by the Archduke Maximilian. In case of such acceptance the Triumvirate would undoubtedly recognize the South.

An item of news was published in the papers, taken from a letter that had been received from the United States stating that the Government was about to fit out an army of observation of 50,000 who were to occupy Matamoras, and assist the Juarez Government. This news had created much excitement and was the principal topic in the daily papers.

Saligny the French Minister, had been poisoned—how and by whom we cannot learn—and was lying very ill. His recovery was considered doubtful.

There is no news from San Luis Potosi. The Liberal forces were contracting their lines and their troops now extend from Guanajuato to Queretaro and San Juan del Rio, and were still advancing towards the City of Mexico.

Provisions were very scarce in the city of Mexico and a great deal of suffering among the poorer classes existed, occasioned by the activity of the guerrillas keeping possession of the roads about the city.

The prisons were filled with prisoners who were arrested in the city of Mexico for treason to the Imperial Government.

TRIBUTE TO GENERAL GRANT.—The following letter was addressed to General Grant by a number of Americans in London on hearing of the capture of Vicksburg:

LONDON, July 21, 1863.

General:—The undersigned, your fellow countrymen temporarily abroad, have received the intelligence of the surrender of Vicksburg to your ever victorious army, and [illegible] across the sea to yourself individually as well as to the heroic men of your command this testimonial of our warm acknowledgments and congratulations. We desire also at the same time, to convey through you to Commodore David D Porter commanding the co-operating fleet and to the gallant officers and seamen under him. The [illegible] of Porter, the son of an old [illegible] during the war of 1812, identified with the glory of our country. The fall of Vicksburg whilst it has cheered the loyal American and many sympathizers with us and our cause, has correspondingly depressed our rebel enemies and their adherents [illegible] in England. Accept, then General for yourself our heartfelt congratulations and be pleased to convey to the gallant army the thanks of ourselves and of those [illegible] here who hail the intelligence of this brilliant achievement with a joy and gladness [illegible] and in degree only to our own. Let your victorious comrades, General, know that the eyes of their grateful countrymen, wherever they may be wandering, as well as those of the foes of human liberty, are upon them—

Let them be assured that patriots everywhere rejoice over their gallant deeds and that with hearts of hope and trust and confidence they will continue to follow them to other fields and other victories until every weapon of rebellion is laid down and the flag [illegible] once more floats triumphant over all our land."

A REBEL PREACHER.—William Keen, a highly respectable citizen of Cumberland county, Kentucky, is in bonds for murder of the Methodist Church. The Rev [illegible] Moore of Franklin, Simpson county, a well known Methodist preacher [illegible] Mr [illegible] it is difficult to understand what Morgan's band wanted of a chaplain [illegible] easy to understand that if they [illegible] wanted one, Moore was exactly their man. Thus Keen and Moore belong to the same church. Morgan's band, upon the occasion of their late advent into our State, took possession of Keen's house south of Cumberland river. Before retiring at night Keen courteously and in a christian like manner asked Moore to pray. Moore consented, and offered up a fervent prayer, Keen occasionally responding. Amen. Near the close of the prayer the rebel parson prayed for the success of the cause, and in a loud voice [illegible] for the success of the rebellion. He would strike dead every man, woman and child in the United States." Keen unable to stand so much exclaimed in a voice to which God and all his angels might listen: "No Lord don't do that!" the prayer is unchristian, and he repeated the exclamation several times. It created an excitement among the rebel [illegible] present, but [illegible] at said they rebuked not Keen, but their own Chaplain. This as we have said, was on the south of Cumberland river. At a house on the north side Moore said to a gentleman in the presence of his family that he wished the last Union man was in hell, and added that he himself had a right to take a portion of the property of every Union man in the land. That pseudo reverend scoundrel is now in Camp Chase. He has full possession of a nook or a corner of that Federal establishment and we guess that it is the last Federal property that he is likely ever to "hold, occupy or possess." Probably the best men in the world are preachers—and the worst.—Louisville Journal.

CITY CEMETERY.—In 1854 the city of Portland purchased of F Caruthers and James [illegible] willinger ten acres of ground for a city cemetery. It is situated about one mile south [illegible] the city near the macadamized road and [illegible] the hill near the ground is somewhat [illegible] which causes the graves to fill with water when dug in wet weather, yet we are assured by good judges that this can easily be remedied by the expenditure of a few hundred dollars in ditching and draining. If this [illegible] done it would be as good a site for a cemetery as the one across the river, and would be a great deal more convenient, being nearer having a good road leading to it, and there [illegible] river to cross. It was laid out in lots [illegible] first purchased and contains quite a number of graves, but has not been used for [illegible] years on account of the above mentioned [illegible] We hope some of our citizens will [illegible] this matter in hands. We cannot see any [illegible] reason why funerals, on a rainy day [illegible] yesterday should have to wait at the ferry landing for half an hour or more, until a portion of the procession has crossed, when [illegible] evil can be so easily remedied.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT met yesterday. The [illegible] of practice in the District Court were [illegible] Messrs E W McGraw, W W [illegible] J J Hoffman and A C Gibbs were admitted to the bar. Adjourned until Monday next.

U S DISTRICT COURT.—This Court met at [illegible] o'clock yesterday. The following named gentlemen were drawn and sworn as the Grand Jury: S M Gilmore, foreman, W J Herron, Charles Bruin, M M Southwurt, John P Walsh, Daniel McCullough and J B Price. [illegible] Stout and H A Gehr were admitted to the bar. The case of the United States vs steamboat Maria was continued. United States vs four bales of furs, default taken. Court adjourned until this morning at nine o'clock.

PERSONAL.—We saw yesterday in our streets, Dugald Mactavish, Esq, for many years the popular Chief Factor of the Hudson's Bay Company at Fort Vancouver in its [illegible] days. He is one of the earliest residents of the Pacific coast, and cannot fail to discover a vast difference between the busy enterprise of our city, and the forest wildness of his early knowledge of this region. Mr Mactavish is now Chief Factor and manager of the immense business of the H B [illegible] at Victoria.

A WINNING GAME.—A single game of "seven up" was played on board the Couch, on her last trip up, in which the Captain of the bark Industry played the jack of clubs on the ten and made "high, jack, game," and took a sack of oysters. Lucky trump, that.

FIREMEN'S FUNERAL.—The funeral procession of Mr McQuade yesterday, was an imposing one. Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co and quite a number of representatives from the other companies of the department, preceded by the Mechanic's brass band, escorted the remains to their last resting place. A large number of carriages containing friends of the deceased, were also in the procession.

EMIGRANTS.—A train of emigrants, consisting of eight teams, arrived in this city last evening, to swell the population of the Willamette valley. They are from Nebraska.

GOLD DUST.—About 100 pounds of the precious dust was in charge of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger on the Hunt last evening.

THEATER.—The performance at the theater last evening, was witnessed by a fair and fashionable audience, and gave entire satisfaction. To night, the great play of "Love, or the Countess and the Serf," will be performed, Mrs Hayne, Mr Waldron and Miss Mitchell taking the leading characters. This is a beautiful and interesting play and should draw a full house.

THE TRIUMVIRATE.—Mexico—that is—such portions of it as have been subjected by the French arms—is ruled by a triumvirate of creatures of France. A Paris letter, speaking of them, says:

"This triumvirate is made up of the Archbishop of Mexico, who at this moment is on a visit at the chateau of St Cloud, where in the three fold capacity of a relation, a [illegible] Catholic and a descendant of one of Cortez's officers the Empress makes much of him. The second of the triumvirate, as you already know, is Gen Almonte, the Emperor's protege, and the third is Salas, who has acquired such an unenviable reputation here in connection with the Jecker bonds that Jules Favre last winter said, in speaking of him: 'It is enough to make a man scout the idea of a Providence to see Mires the swindling banker and a ruined man and Salas on the high road to fortune.'"

FROM JAPAN.—William B Farwell, acting Collector at San Francisco, received a letter from R H Pruyn, United States Minister to Japan. He says: "The prompt course [illegible] resenting the outrage [attacking an American vessel] has resulted most [illegible] the Wyoming with six guns destroyed a steamer, a bark and a brig mounting [illegible] seventy-two [illegible] engaging six shore batteries [illegible] accomplished [illegible] with so little means [illegible] the Japanese people and Government."

CITY CEMETERY.—In 1854, the city of Portland purchased, of F. Caruthers and James Terwilliger, ten acres of ground for a city cemetery. It is situated about one mile south of the city, near the macadamized road, and though the hill near the ground is somewhat springy, which causes the graves to fill with water when dug in wet weather, yet we are assured by good judges that this can easily be remedied by the expenditure of a few hundred dollars in ditching and draining. If this were done it would be as good a site for a cemetery as the one across the river, and would be a great deal more convenient; being nearer, having a good road leading to it, and there being no river to cross. It was laid out in lots ... first purchased, and contains quite a number of graves, but has not been used for ... years on account of the above-mentioned ... We hope some of our citizens will take this matter in hands. We cannot see any possible reason why funerals, on a rainy day like yesterday, should have to wait at the ferry landing for half an hour or more, until a part of the procession has crossed, when ... could be so easily remedied.

Remarkable Cure.

BERRY, MONROE CO., MICH., Oct. 9, 1858.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co:—In reply to inquiries as to the efficacy of DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, justice requires of me to state that, having at times been attacked by a violent contraction of the muscles of the legs, I experienced immediate relief by taking at each time a swallow of the Pain Panacea direct from the bottle. It is rather a tough remedy, but I have always found the smarting of the Panacea a very happy exchange for the excruciating pains attending cramps in the limbs.

Your obedient servant,
SAMUEL HENDRY.

In Every Age of the World, the pro... have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

The Prettiest Hand.

Give me the hand that is warm, kind and ready
Give me the clasp that is calm, true and steady
Give me the hand that will never deceive me,
Give me the grasp that I aye may believe thee
Soft is the palm of the delicate woman,
Hard is the hand of the rough sturdy yeoman,
Soft palm or hard hand it matters not—never!
Give me the hand that is friendly for ever.

Give me the hand that is true as a brother
Give me the hand that has harmed no other
Give me the hand that has not forsworn
Give me the grasp that I may adhere
Lovely the palm of the fair blue-veined maiden,
Horny the hand of the workman o'erladen
Lovely or ugly, it matters not—never
Give me the grasp that is friendly for ever.

Give me the grasp that is honest and hearty
Free as the breeze and unshackled by party
Let friendship give the grasps that become her—
Close as the twine of the vines of summer
Give me the hand that is true as a brother
Give me the hand that has not wronged another
Soft palm or hard hand it matters not—never
Give me the grasp that is friendly forever!

Speech of Alexander H. Stephens.

DELIVERED BEFORE THE GEORGIA CONVENTION BEFORE THAT STATE SECEDED

"Let Justice be done, though the Heavens fall"

We frequently see it charged that the people of the North caused the Southern rebellion. Let intelligent people read the following extracts from Alexander H Stephens' last speech before the Georgia Convention, when that State was about seceding from the Union. The inspirations of Holy Writ have hardly been more truthfully realized than have Mr Stephens' predictions of a desolated South if they once took the fatal step of secession. Two years and a half of unholy rebellion against a kind Government!—what agony, distress, death, and desolation, has not been visited already upon the rebellious South! What will it not be a year hence if the rebellion continues? Let an impartial world judge. Mr Stephens said:

This step, once taken, could never be recalled, and all the baleful and withering consequences that must follow (as they would see) must rest on the Convention for all time coming. When we and our posterity shall see our lovely South desolated by the demon of war, which this act of yours will inevitably invite and call forth; when our green fields of waving harvests shall be trodden down by the murderous soldiery and fiery car of war sweeping over our land; our temples of justice laid in ashes; all the horrors and desolations of war upon us; who but this Convention will be held responsible for it? and who but him who shall have given his vote for this unwise and ill-timed measure, as I honestly think and believe, shall be held to strict account for this suicidal act by the present generation, and probably cursed and execrated by posterity for all coming time, for the wide and desolating ruin that will inevitably follow this act you now propose to perpetrate? Pause, I entreat you, and consider for a moment what reasons you can give that will even satisfy yourselves in calmer moments—what reasons you can give to your fellow sufferers in the calamity that it will bring upon us. What reasons can you give to the nations of the earth to justify it? They will be the calm and deliberate judges in the case; and to what cause or one overt act can you name or point, on which to rest the plea of justification? What right has the North assailed? What interest of the South has been invaded by it? What justice has been denied? and what claim, founded in justice and right, has been withheld? Can any of you to-day name one governmental act of wrong, deliberately and purposely done by the Government of Washington, of which the South has a right to complain? I challenge the answer.

While, on the other hand, let me show the facts (and believe me, gentlemen, I am not here the advocate of the North; but I am here the firm friend and lover of the South and her institutions, and for this reason I speak thus plainly and faithfully for yours, mine, and every other man's interest, the words of truth and soberness), of which I wish you to judge, and I will only state facts which are clear and undeniable, and which now stand as records authentic in the history of our country. When we of the South demanded the slave-trade, or the importation of Africans for the cultivation of our lands, did they not yield the right for twenty years? When we asked a three fifths representation in Congress for our slaves was it not granted? When we asked and demanded the return of any fugitive from justice, or the recovery of those persons owing labor or allegiance, was it not incorporated in the Constitution, and again ratified and strengthened in the Fugitive Slave law in 1850? But do you reply that in many instances they have violated this compact, and have not been faithful to their engagement? As individual and local communities they may have done so, but not by the sanction of the Government, for that has always been true to Southern interests.

Again, gentlemen, look at another fact: when we have asked that more territory be added that we might spread the institution of slavery, did they not yield to our demands in giving us Louisiana, Florida and Texas, out of which four States have been carved, and ample territory for four more to be added in due time, if you by this unwise and impolitic act do not destroy this hope, and, perhaps, by it lose all and have your last slave wrenched from you by stern military rule, as South America and Mexico were, or by the vindictive decree of universal emancipation, which may reasonably be expected to follow. But, again, gentlemen, what have we to gain by this proposed change of our relation to the General Government? We have always had control of it, and can yet, if we remain in it and are as united as we have been. We have had a majority of the Presidents chosen from the South, as well as the control and management of most of those chosen from the North. We have had sixty years of Southern Presidents to their twenty four, thus controlling the Executive department. So, of the Judges of the Supreme Court, we have had eighteen from the South, and but eleven from the North, although nearly three fourths of the judicial business has arisen in the free States, yet a majority of the Court has always been from the South. This we have required so as to guard against any interpretation of the Constitution unfavorable to us. In like manner we have been equally watchful in guarding our interests in the legislative branch of Government. In choosing the Presidents (pro tem.) of the Senate, we have had twenty four to their eleven. Speakers of the House, we have had twenty three and they twelve. While the majority of the Representatives, from their greater population, have always been with the North, we have generally secured the Speaker, because he, to a great extent, shapes and controls the legislation of the country. Nor have we had less control in every other department of the General Government. Attorney Generals we have had fourteen, while the North have had but five. Foreign Ministers, we have had eighty-six, and they but fifty-four. While three-fourths of the business which demands diplomatic agents abroad is clearly from the free States, from their greater commercial interests, yet we have had the principal embassies, so as to secure the world markets for our cotton, tobacco and sugar, on the best possible terms. We have had a vast majority of the higher offices of both army and navy, while a larger proportion of the soldiers and sailors were drawn from the North. Equally so of clerks, auditors and controllers filling the Executive department; the records show for the last forty years that of the three thousand thus employed, we have had more than two thirds of the same, while we have but one third of the white population of the Republic.

Again, look at another item, and one be assured, in which we have a great and vital interest; it is that of revenue or means of supporting Government. From official documents we learn that a fraction over three fourths of the revenue collected for the support of Government has uniformly been raised from the North. Pause now while you can, gentlemen, and contemplate carefully and candidly these important items.

Leaving out of view for the present, the countless millions of dollars you must expend in a war with the North; with tens of thousands of your sons and brothers slain in battle, and offered up as sacrifices to the demon of your ambition—and for what? we ask again. Is it for the overthrow of the American Government established by our common ancestry, cemented and built up by their sweat and blood, and founded on the broad principles of right, justice and humanity? And, as such, I must declare here, as I have often done before, and which has been repeated by the greatest and wisest of statesmen and patriots in this and in other lands, that it is the best and freest Government—the most equal in its rights, the most just in its decisions, the most lenient in its measures, and the most inspiring in its principles to elevate the race of men, that the sun of heaven ever shone upon. Now for you to attempt to overthrow such a Government as this, under which we have lived for more than three quarters of a century—in which we have gained our wealth, our standing as a nation, our domestic safety, while the elements of peril are around us, with peace and tranquility, accompanied with unbounded prosperity and rights unassailed—is the height of folly, madness and wickedness, to which I can neither lend my sanction or my vote.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES,

Passed at the Third Session of the Thirty Seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 49.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to provide a temporary government for the Territory of Colorado."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the second section of the act to which this is an amendment be altered so as to read as follows: The executive power and authority in and over said Territory of Colorado shall be vested in a Governor, who shall hold his office for four years, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed by the President of the United States. The Governor shall reside within said Territory, shall be commander-in-chief of the militia thereof, shall perform the duties and receive the emoluments of superintendent of Indian Affairs. He may grant pardons for offences against the laws of said Territory, and reprieves for offences against the laws of the United States, until the decision of the President can be made known thereon. He shall commission all officers who shall be appointed to office under the laws of said Territory, and shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That every bill which shall have passed the legislative assembly shall, before it become a law, be presented to the Governor of the Territory. If he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, to be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within three days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the assembly, by adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That section nine of the act to which this act is amendatory be altered so as to read as follows: Section 9. And be it further enacted, That the judicial power of said Territory shall be vested in a supreme court, district courts, probate courts, and justices of the peace. The supreme court shall consist of a chief justice and two associate justices, any two of whom shall constitute a quorum, and who shall hold a term at the seat of government of said Territory annually, and they shall hold their offices during the period of four years. The said Territory shall be divided into three judicial districts, and a district court shall be held in each of said districts by one of the justices of the supreme court at such time and place as may be prescribed by law; and the said judges shall, after their appointments, respectively reside in the districts which shall be assigned them. The jurisdiction of the several courts herein provided for, both appellate and original, and of justices of the peace, shall be as limited by law: Provided, That justices of the peace shall not have jurisdiction of any matter in controversy when the title or boundaries of land may be in dispute, or when the debt or sum claimed shall exceed three hundred dollars; and the said probate court shall not have jurisdiction of any matter in controversy when the debt or sum claimed shall exceed the sum of two thousand dollars; and said supreme and district court shall have authority for redress of all wrongs committed against the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the said supreme, district, and probate court, respectively, shall possess chancery as well as common law jurisdiction and authority for the redress of all wrongs committed against the laws of said Territory affecting persons or property. Each district court, or the judge thereof, shall appoint its clerk, who shall also be the register in chancery, and shall keep his office at the place where the court may be held. Writs of error, bills of exception, and appeals shall be allowed from the final decisions of said district and probate courts to the supreme court, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by law; but in no case removed to the supreme court shall trial by jury be allowed in said court. The supreme court, or the justices thereof, shall appoint its own clerk, and every clerk shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court for which he shall have been appointed. Writs of error and appeals from the final decisions of said supreme court shall be allowed and may be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States, in the same manner and under the same regulations as from the Circuit Courts of the United States, when the value of the property, or the amount in controversy, to be ascertained by the oath or affirmation of either party or other competent witness, shall exceed one thousand dollars, and each of said supreme and district courts shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction in all cases arising under the Constitution and laws of the United States as is vested in the Circuit and District Courts of the United States, and the said supreme and district courts of said Territory, and the respective judges thereof, shall and may grant writs of habeas corpus in all cases in which the same are granted by the judges of the United States in the District of Columbia, and the first six days of every term of said courts, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, shall be appropriated to the trial of causes arising under the said Constitution and laws, and writs of error and appeals in all such cases shall be made to the supreme court of said Territory, the same as in other cases. The said clerk shall receive in all such cases the same fees which the clerks of the district courts of Oregon Territory received for similar services.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of sections one and two of this act shall be applicable to the Territory of Dakota, and shall have the effect as in the Territory of Colorado.

Approved, March 3d, 1863.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M.D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M.D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, Ia., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, Pa.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE Co., Iowa, writes, Sept. 6, 1856: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Yours, with gratitude and regard, ORLANDO SHELBY, of SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.
